

Idiom challenge: 'Under the weather'

This idiom means feeling ill, but where does the phrase originally come from?

A sailor who feels unwell and he moves to the bow of the ship to feel better

A farmer who feels very unwell so he sleeps in his field in the fresh air

A child on a roller coaster, feeling sick and getting wet in the rain